

Safeguarding Children and Vulnerable Adults Policy

December 2020

PURPOSE AND BACKGROUND

The welfare of a child and vulnerable adult is paramount. Abuse is a term to describe ways in which children and vulnerable adults are harmed, usually by adults and often by people they know and trust. It refers to the damage done to a child or vulnerable adult's physical or mental health. New forms of abuse such as internet grooming, financial abuse of older people and the extreme difficulties faced by young asylum seekers, mean our policies and procedures need to be continually reviewed to keep abreast of these developments.

Abuse can occur within or outside the family including a place of learning or training. Safeguarding, if it is to have an impact, must become the responsibility of everyone. All employees, directors, board members, partners and other stakeholders have a responsibility to actively make the environment a safe and secure place for all.

DEFINITIONS

The Children Act 1989 and 2004 defines a 'child' as:

- a person under the age of 18.

The Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups Act 2006 defines a 'vulnerable adult' as:

- Person aged 18 and over, and;
- Receiving a social care service;
- Receiving a health service;
- Living in sheltered accommodation;
- Detained in custody or under a probation order;
- Requiring assistance in the conduct of his/her affairs;
- Receiving a service or participating in an activity targeted at older people;

GUIDANCE

Good Practice

- Always work in an open environment avoiding private or unobserved situations, encourage open communication;
- Treat all children and vulnerable adults equally with respect and dignity;
- Maintain a safe and appropriate distance;
- Be aware of the effect your words or actions may have.

Practices to be avoided

- Spending excessive amounts of time alone with children and vulnerable adults away from others;
- Straying from the specified task or assignment;
- Being unnecessarily inquisitive;
- Saying anything that may make a child or vulnerable adult feel uncomfortable, or that could be interpreted as aggressive, hostile or impatient;
- Being drawn into personal conversations;
- Sitting or standing too close;
- Meeting other than at the prearranged venue;
- Exchanging personal details;
- Making contact via social internet contact sites.

Practices never to be sanctioned

You should never:

- Allow allegations made by a child or vulnerable adult to go unchallenged, unrecorded or not acted upon;
- Promise a child or vulnerable adult that their confidences will be kept secret;
- Allow children or vulnerable adults to use inappropriate language unchallenged;
- Reduce a child or vulnerable adult to tears as a form of control;
- Allow or engage in any form of touching or make suggestive comments to a child or vulnerable adult.

RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE IMPLEMENTATION OF THE POLICY

We believe that it is everyone's responsibility to remain vigilant and to ensure that children and vulnerable adults are provided with a safe and secure environment.

Staff dealing with children and vulnerable adults will be trained in how to recognise and respond to a situation where abuse is reported and how to report this or any concerns. They should try to consider and act on 5 R's:

- Recognition;
- Response;
- Reporting;
- Recording;
- Referral.

Recognition - signs and indicators of abuse may just cause concern, but it could be a direct disclosure from someone. A direct disclosure may be made to anyone within the organisation who is trusted by the individual.

Response – Appropriate response is vital. No report should ever be ignored. At this point the response is just to listen, stay calm, and not show shock or outrage at what is being disclosed. You may need to ask some questions, but these should never lead or probe, just gather enough information to ascertain if there is immediate danger or harm. Do not make any promises as to what will happen, and be clear that everything will be treated in confidence, but must be passed on to the appropriate HR coordinator at T2 Fitness Ltd.

Reporting – Immediately report your concerns or information to the HR coordinator. Once the report has been made, the responsibility will lie with the HR coordinator. You are within your rights to check that appropriate action has been taken, but confidentiality may mean that the HR coordinator may not be able to share this information with you. If for any reason you feel that the matter has not been taken forward, you can make a referral directly to the Independent Safeguarding Authority.

Recording – You should record precisely what has been alleged, using the key words and phrases used by the individual. You can also record your own observations of the individual, as well as your interpretation of the facts. This record should be passed on in person to the HR coordinator, who will store it securely, where it is only accessible to those staff with safeguarding responsibilities.

Referral - The HR coordinator should gather enough information to make a referral, if appropriate by talking to the appropriate people outside the organisation.
